From: "Original Lists of Emigrants to America 1600-1700" by John Camden Hotten, p. 61.

They arrived safely and settled in Cambridge, Mass., where in June 1637 their daughter Susanna was born.
(There was also a son Thomas, who died in infancy.)

Thomas Bloggett was allotted land in 1635 and became a Freeman in 1636. He was a member of the Thomas Shepherd Company which founded what is now the Shepherd Memorial Church. He must have been a man of some means for it is recorded that in 1639 he owned a house and land. In 1641 he made his will which was as follows:

Cambridge in America

I, Thomas Bloggett, being at this time in my right mind, give to wife Susan, my whole estate, after my decease, as well within doors as without. She to bring up my children in such learning and other things as shall be meet for them and pay eldest son, Daniel, £15 when he is 1 and 20, or in one month after her decease. To my second son, Samuel £15 as above. To Susanna £15. Should they have a father at law who does not treat them well, my will is that the Deacons and our Brother Fflessington and our Brother Winchship they, or either of them should have the power to see into it and reform it by one means or another. Written this 10th day of 5th month 1641.

THOMAS BLODGETT

In presence of
THOMAS HARRIS
JOHN MENS

He died in 1642.

Susan, widow of Thomas, married in 1644, James Thompson, and moved to Woburn, Mass. Here her sons, Daniel and Samuel Blodgett, grew to manhood, and in December, 1655, Samuel married Ruth Eggeden, or Iggleden, of Boston.
